MAKING THINGS LAST.

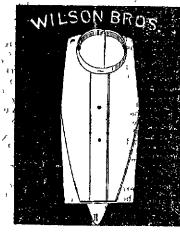

How a Saving Wite Can Materially Assist

Every house-keeper knows how careful treatment keeps table-linen and household furniture. Guls do not always know or remember that great care of their own little possessions will often enable them to dress nicely on very little money. A lady says "When I was a gul there was one of my young friends who was distinguished for 'making her things last' Her dress, hats, gloves and ribbons were a marvel of durability I used to wonder how she managed to make them last so without their getting shabby, but I ceased to do so when I visited her at her own home. The reason why her electron home. clothes were so long was that she took good care of them Her dresses were brushed and folded away carefully, and the slightest spot on them was 16 moved as soon as it was discovered Her hat was wrapped in an old pocket handkerchief, and put away in a box as soon as done with, the strings and laces being straightened and colled out most systematically each time. Her gloves were never folded together, but were box, one upon another, each time they were used, the timest hole being mended almost before it had time to show itself But the thing that impressed me most was the care she bestowed on her ribbons. When making up bows she used to line the upper part of the ribbon with white paper, and this not only prevented the ribbon.

not only prevented the ribbon from becoming limp and creased but kept it clean, so shat when the bow was soiled on one side she could turn the ribbon, and the part that had been covered came out looking new and fresh That girl married and brought up a large tamily Her hosband had to fight his way, and did so bravely, and was unu-sually successful, for he became wealthy His prosperity was due quite as much to his wife's care and economy in saving money as it was to his making it "Good Cheer.

The Democratic Ticke'.

The Democratic state convention at Springfield yesterday nominated Henry Franz Joseph Ricker, of Quincy, fr state treasurer, and Franklin J. Oldt, of Carroll county, The Situation Much Worse Than Herefor state superintendent. The reso-Intions underse Cleveland's adminis tidon, demand a lower tariff, favor the devotion of the treasury surplus to the payment of the public debt (which t'leveland refused to save tien), denounce the importation of foreign laboters, oppose prohibition, express sympathy for Ireland, and favor the granting of liberal pen nions, but express no opinion con corning the act of the president in votoing the same. The platform is votoing the same. The platform is are a failure, while the ground, decided for grass presents the appearance of a desert, with only post cak enough to suit any and every shade and mesquite leaves for cattle to live on. Fully a third of the population have of political opinion.

THAT part of Mr. Blame's speech which pretains to the labor question is especially interesting and foreible His view that the workingman's safety and advantage can best be conserved and promoted by maintaming the protective tariff which shuts out foreign competition, and by elevating the laboring class at the South, is not a new one, but he presents it in an unusually plain and impressive style. The labor problem, practically speaking, turns the set of sented. I have resided in Stephens upon the idea of keeping the rate of county twenty-seven years, and this is the first year that has been attended with which provails in Europe, and experionce has clearly shown that protective duties effect that objectwhich is simply saying that the tariff protects the laborer quite as much as it protects the employer, and thus contribute: directly and continually to the general welfare.

Rocarsera Union: "A party compered of six German editors of Milwankees, Wis., on a Central Hudson train this morning, on route to New York to attend a convention, were questioned as to their opinion con ceening the conviction of the Chicago Annichists. Without reservation or exception they declared the verdict to be enturyl proper and in comptoto accord with their sentiments in the premises". There is no question but that our German American edizers are in favor of law and or der. There are no more peaceable and quiet citizens on the American contracte and they cannot be made terp in ride for a lot of fanatics of Ma Braist made his second epeoch or the Maine campaign at North Burya k Wadnesday - He ac cased the Probabilionals of meon siston; and ingratifude toward the Republican party, which had given the State all the prohibition legisla tion it ever had. The prohibition sate did not expect to elect anybody of then own party, they could only defeat the Republicans Passing to the fisher es question, Mr. Blaine said. 'Canada is in a very peculiar pusition. She wants to enjoy the pride and sentiment of belonging to the Butish empire and to pocket the profit and advantage of having the American market at the same time. We don't thick that fair " Mr. Blame read in length from the late treaty with Canada, commenting as he proceeded, and showing that by its terms the United States were placed at a great disadvantage.

JAMES G. DIAME IN his speech refors to the Kraghts of Labor and drops this partment suggestion. "It would be well for the labor organizations to difigently inquire and as certain how the wages of labor in the United States can be kept above the rate of wages in England, Ger many and Pinner on the same articlas of manufacture without the intervention of protective duties. With the present cheap modes of in terchange and transportation of all commodities, I inquire of these gentlemen how, under the rules of free trade, can wage a in the United States be kept above the general standard of European wages? I do not stop for the detail of argument, I only desire to lodge the question in the minds of the millions of American Inborers who have it in their power to maintain protection or to inaugurate free trade; who have it in their power to uphold the party of protection or the party of free trade.

Sr. Louis Globe Democrat: The perfunctory and hypocritical landstions of the Administration at State Conventions of the Democracy this sesson have evidently disgusted the robust Illinois members of that party. At the Convention in Spring lield yesterday a vigorous attempt was made to denounce Cleveland and his Capinet for some of their many shortcomings. This little spisode imparted an olement of activity and picturesqueness to what otherwise would have been a very tame and tedious affair.

DATLAS, Tex., Aug. 27.-Hon. E. L. Walker, County Judge of Stephens County, arrived in the city yesterday, the carer of an appeal from the county commissioners of his county for aid to avert on account of the protracted drought. He made the following statement, which al most pictures a Sahara of desciation: "There has been no seasonable rain in the county for the last fourteen months, as the result of which crops abandoned their homes in search of labor and food; many more would, but can not for want of means, and numerous families are actually suffering for the neces-saries of life, beyond the possibility of local relief. In fact, there is neither grass nor food in the county. I can not state the percentage of cattle that have died, but they are dying all around, and unless good fall rains intervene, or ranges are found, not a head off cattle of Stephens County will pall through the winter. Lots of people in the county have not had a bito of bread for weeks, and meat is even scarcer than bread. Many cases of individual suffering have boen brought to my attention, but suffer-ing is general, and unless the people are shipped out of the country or provided for against the winter, they can not possibly survive that season. The situaa complete failure of the crops." Judge Walker added that Shackelford, Young, Palo Pinto, Throckmorton East-

A Notable Gathering of Empty Sleeves. CGRRY, Pa., Aug. 27 .- The veterans of the One Hundred and Eleventh Pennsylvania Volunteers held a reunion here yesterday. Every company was represented, and every veteran had with him his card which consisted of an empty sleeve, a missing limb or honorable scars. On their banners were inscribed memorable events, such as "Lookout Mountain,"

"Antietam Gettysburg," "Atlanta" and "Sherman's March to the Sea." The One Hundred and Eleventh were on the right at Gestysburg, and occupied Culp's Hill. The veterans were all well pleased to meet each other before the final bivouse on the Jordan. The ladies of Corry had a sumptuous repast to set before them, which was heartily enjoyed. The exercises closed with speeches and congratulations.

Homosopathic Hospital in Detroit. DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 27 .- Several venre ago a lot valued at $25,000 was donathd by Amos Chaffee as a site for a proposed free hospital, to be controled by the homoeopathic physicians of this city. Yesterday it was announced that John C. Newberry and James McMillan have each donated $100,000 for a free hospital fund. Work will be commenced as soon as plans are drawn. The hospital is designed for the worthy poor and victims of accidents, who can not afford to pay for surgical aid. No charges will be made for any service rendered.

OUKER DIET.

Boston, Aug. 27 .- After seven years of great suffering, Mrs. Mary Powers, middle-aged woman, residing at No. 21

Grant street, Cambridge, expelled from her stomach on Monday a fully developed but which she swallowed in 1879. It is about three or four inches long, with a head somewhat resembling that of a lizard. The head inself is nearly an inch in length. From the lower law hang several tufts of long hair. The eyes and nostrils are clearly marked, as is also the snout. The rest of the body is the bedy of a bet with booked wings.

the wonder and told the following story:

"One night, about seven years ago, when I lived at Arlington, I went out to a pump in the yard to get a drink of water. I diew some water in a dipper and drank it. The night was so dark that whatever might have been in the water escaped my notice. Soon I had a severe pain in one side. It grew more and more intense with time until I finally took to my bed. I had suffered most every thing in the way of pain for two weeks. Finally

Dr. Harris attended me, but could not account for my symptoms. I saw other physicians, but none could explain suffered numbness in my fingers and limbs, and my arms became powerless.

At the end of a year I went to the Masschusetts General Hospital, but the doctors there could find nothing wrong with me. After moving to Cambridge I was attended from time to time by Drs. Clark and Nichols, but without getting any relief. Last Saturday, Sunday and Monday were the worst days

I had seen since the beginning. I expected to die at any moment. At about twelve o'clock Monday night I expelled that peculiar thing. Since then I have limbs, and never felt better in my life than now. Dr. Clark saw it and gave it a peculiar name. What it was I can not just now remember."

New York, Aug. 27.—Shortly after 8

was an understanding that the strikers should go back to work and give the new six-trip schedule a trial. Mr. Thomp-son agreed that if within four days it is found that the new schedule requires the men to work more than twelve hours he will voluntarily return to the old five-trip schedule. The commit-

Appointment of Matthews, Colored Recorder.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 .- The Critic molishes the following respecting the ecent reappointment of Mr. Mattews to the position of Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia: The following is an exact copy of the President's letter on- file in the office of the executive clerk of the Senate: TO THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES: I nominate James C Masthews, of New York, to be Recorder of Deeds in the District of Columbia, vice Frederick Douglass, who has resigned.

the President's letter as to a vacancy existing; for he says Douglass has resigned. The subsequent action of the President in commissioning Matthews Recorder of Deeds was therefore to fill a vacancy, which happened while the Senate was in session. This action brings both the President and Matthews under the penalties of sec-tions Nos. 1771 and 1772 of the revised statutes, and the conditions are aggravated by the fact of Matthews hav-ing already been rejected by the Senate. The continuance of Mr. Matthews to act cumstances, is not unlikely to create much commotion if not some very serious real estate complications.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.-A well-kept diplomatic and executive secret, to which interest is given by the possibility of a request being made by the United States for the surrender by Mexico of Mondragon for trial in this country, is the fact that a special extradition treaty be-tween the United States and Mexico is now awaiting final action by the Mexican now awaiting main action by the Mexican Congress, having been accepted with amendments by the United States Senate in January of this year. The treaty provides that the surrender to either country by the authorities of the other shall discretionary with the execu-whenever a notorious crime committed.

treaty, although approved by both nations, still lacks final Mexican sanction to render it operative. The only signifi-cance of the treaty is the indication of a disposition on part of the United States to maintain such relations with Mexico. Mexico already has the authority to surrender a notorious criminal, but the United States has no such power without this treaty. When Mexico has volunsurrendered such prisoners, the United States has only accepted the action with an understanding that no obligation WASHINGTON, Aug. 27. - Assistant-Secretary Hawkins, of the Interior De partment, has about completed the re organization of the Board of Pension Appeals so as to conform to the provisions of the Appropriation act passed at the last session of Congress. Instead of three the reorganized board will consist of nine members, who will be formed in to three divisions, each of which will consider and pass upon one or more of the several classes of claims. Thus increased, it is expected the work of the board, which is about a year behind, will very soon be brought up to date.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE CZAR'S INTENDED GAME. London, Aug. 26.-The universal im pression here is that the Czar willtake advantage of the present revolution and counter-revolution to enter Bulgaria sian newspapers are urging him to do so. But, according to the terms of the convention signed by the Great Powers a Ports is authorized, in case of a revolt, to march troops not only into Eastern Roumelia, but even into Bulga-ria. Acting on this clause, the Sultan has ordered the immediate occupation of the Roumelian frontier and has com-manded a levy-en-masse of the Mussulman population throughout the Empire The whole reserves have also been called out, and there is every sign that even if Northern Bulgaria is, under the protense of maintaining order, occupied by the Caar, at any rate the Turks will not permit a single Russian soldier to cross the Balkans or to enter the province of Eastern Roumetia.

On the other hand the Russians, who have brought about the fail of Prince Alexander solely upon the ground that he was sacrificing the rights of the Slave in Eastern Roumelia to the Porte, can not logically allow the latter to resume one, with the chances, as usual, in their former rule of this Christian prov-ince. A conflict is, therefore, regarded here as inevitable, and it is generally here as inevitable, and it is generally considered that Russia will shortly be at war with Turkey. The old traditional policy of the Tories, together with the Cyprus treaty, whereby England guaranteed her assistance to maintain the integrity of the Ottoman Empire, would then draw Great Britain into the struggle. It is characteristic of Russian idiplomacy that when M. De Nelidoff, the Russian Ambassador at Constantinople, returned to his post a short time ago, after spending a fortshort time ago, after spending a fort-night with the Czur, he gave the Sultan the most strongly worded assurances that his imperial master had not the slightest intention of interfering in any way in Bulgaria, and all reports to the way in Bulgaria, and an reports to the contrary were untrustworthy.

"If the troops are massed in Bessarabia," he said, "they merely collected there for the annual maneavers, and the Czar is determined to let things shape their own course in Bulgaria." ALEXANDER SAFE AND FREE.

London, Aug. 26 .- The British For eign Office has been informed that Prince Alexander is both safe and free, and that he is on his way to his bome in Darmstadt. The dispatches state that after being conveyed out of Bulgaria the Prince was set free at Reni. It is believed here that when Prince Alexander favor he will at once return to Sofia. His presence there will, it is believed, quell all disorder and restore peace to the country.

DEPOSED BY A SINGLE REGIMENT. LONDON, Aug. 26,-The latest dispatches from Sofia with regard to the magner in which Prince Alexander was deposed say that it was effected by a single regiment of military cadets, who also arrested the commander of the Alexander regiment, who was at Slivnitza at the time. The provisional government seeing that the people favored Prince Alexander, resigned and liberated the commander of the Alexander regiment who, upon regaining his liberty, at once arrested the leaders of the conspiracy The Powers have recognized the Kura-veloff government, which is in favor of Alexander.

INVITED TO RETURN. LONDON, Aug. 26.-Sir J. Ferguson Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, stated in the House of Commons this evening that the government had re ceived a dispatch from Sofia to the effect that troops loyal to the deposed Prince Alexander entered that city on Tuesday with the consent of the powers. "The exact whereabouts of Prince Alexander," he continued, "is not known, but tele grams have been sent in all directions with the hope of reaching him, inviting him to return to Bulgaria." The charge against Conradi was that he had baptized persons in the Lutheran faith.

The President on His Rambles. PROSPECT HOUSE, N. Y., Aug. 27 .-The President was a weary man last night, for yesterday, in company with Dr. Ward, he had explored a half dozen akes and ponds, traveling in all twenty miles, one-fourth of the journey being made on foot. They took their trolling lines along, but as they returned without any fish, neither of them was willing to admit that they had had a day's fishing. comparison with the corresponding quarter of the previous year shows the receipts to have been $10,983,648 34; ex.

A deer got in to the lake in front of Saranac Inn, while the President was jeating his breakfast yesterday morning, and it was proposed to drive it ashore and give Mr. Cleveland a shot at it. Two guides pulled toward the mimal with all their might, but. like the bear which was in the lake the day be fore, it got ashore unburt, notwithstand ing that three balls from a Wincheste rifle skirted over the water close to it. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cleveland entertained at the cabin Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Corning, of Cleveland, relatives of Senator Payno.

A new counterfeit eilver dollar, bearing date of 1989, has made its appearance. It is a remarkably well-executed piece heavily plated with silver, and is calculated to deceive ninety-nine persons out of a hundred. It is almost correct weight, and only the trained ear of an habitual money handler can detect the glassy tone in the ring. But although it stands the test of chemicals, it is brittle and will break in two when struck with a hammer. It is evidently a new counterfeit.
